

Foundational Studies (FSH)

FSH 1500 Foundations of Humanities 4 Credit Hours

ESL Placement Level: For English-as-a-Second-Language (ESL) students, placement in ESL 2520.

Students explore ways in which humanity has sought meaning and purpose in life, particularly as reflected in the visual, performing, and literary arts. The course examines interrelations between diverse cultural traditions and artistic expressions. It also introduces elements, concepts and terminology of the various humanistic disciplines studied. BILLABLE CONTACT HOURS: 4

GE Outcomes: Aesthetic Awareness